

For the Hot Summer Days

Through the hot days of August there is nothing so important to you as keeping baby well and happy.

This is easy to do when you have one of our baby carriages. The reed bodies give him plenty of fresh air and are long enough so that he can go to sleep in it.

Long flexible springs, the reversing gear and other features make our carriages ideal for health and comfort.

We have a number of new Strollers just in for the older youngsters.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Park theatre will open to-morrow afternoon—adv.

Mario Refi went to Burlington this morning to pass the week end with friends.

Miss Hazel Putnam of Springfield, Mass., is visiting in the home of her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Miller of Cliff street.

Mrs. Andrew Moore of Montreal, P. Q., arrived in the city last evening to make an extended visit with relatives.

Banks in Barre were closed to-day on account of Bennington battle day; otherwise the holiday was not observed in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Shea of Tremont street were recent visitors in Brandon, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nutting.

South Barre grange will hold a picnic Saturday, Aug. 17, in Will Jackson's woods, between South Barre and Jackson's. Everybody come and bring baskets.

Fishermen returning from Lake Mansfield report large catches of trout lately. Thus far the record is held by an angler from Dartmouth college, who has caught several trout whose weight exceeded a pound.

Ambrose Millett of Woodsville, N. H., who was locked up by the police last night, appeared before Magistrate H. W. Scott in municipal court this morning and admitted an intoxication offense. He elected 10 days in the county jail.

If all goes well with the quadrennial appraisal, which is engaging the attention of the city assessing board just now, the new appraisals will be posted within a fortnight for the inspection of all who own real estate. It is expected that the board of civil authority will meet on the evening of Sept. 6 to consider any appeals that may be brought to their attention.

Recent rainstorms wrought a sorry upheaval in the newly constructed cement sidewalk on Tremont street and while the street department is getting ready to make the necessary repairs, pedestrians are nightly warned of the danger which lies ahead by a lantern. Water flowing down the street washed a hole under the walk and not long afterward the cement work cracked and then sank into the opening. The break occurred in a section where the grade was materially raised to conform to the higher levels of the street.

Members of the city council, who were present at the meeting of the board of civil authority last evening have interested themselves in a suggestion made by W. D. Smith as to providing a public register which shall proclaim to travelers the number of names of Barre men who are with the colors. Recently while touring through Massachusetts Mr. Smith stopped in Northampton, a city of 22,000, and noticed a set of small billboards on which were inscribed the names of the Northampton men who have gone to war. Inch letters were used to display around 400 names, and the roll of honor occupied a conspicuous place near the public square. It is possible that the council may take some action in the matter at its regular meeting next week.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brigham of New York, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Aubinger of New York, O. W. Benedict of Norwich, N. Y., F. Campbell, Miss Miriam and Margaret Campbell, Miss Ruperta Coyle of Wilder, William Walker, Jr., O. F. McCabe of Evans, J. F. Harvey and F. L. Cheney of Rutland, W. H. Nason and party of New York, J. H. Otterson of Manchester, L. H. Gordon of Lyndonville, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Paine and Miss Joy Paine of Reading, Conn., A. K. Dickinson of New Brunswick, J. J. H. Burwell of Saratoga, N. Y., W. J. Metzger of Buffalo, N. Y., F. J. Ladue of St. Albans, T. H. Maguire of Barton and J. C. Whitney of Portland, Me.

Throughout the week end officers of Barre branch will entertain two representatives from the international headquarters of the granitecutters' union at Quincy, Mass., Alex. W. Russell, a former delegate to the A. F. of L. convention, and Harry Brooks, both of whom are attached to international headquarters in important capacities, will arrive in the city tomorrow morning. Mr. Russell is a brother of W. W. Russell and has been a frequent visitor in this city, but it will be Mr. Brooks' first visit to the Barre granite district. He came to the international office from Baltimore, Md., some years ago. Officers of Barre branch will take the visitors through the cutting plants and later in the day there will be a motor trip to Millstone hill. Messrs. Brooks and Russell will return to Quincy Sunday night.

After three years of watchful waiting, in which period the city council has been asked frequently to act on their petition for a sidewalk, Park street residents have the satisfaction of knowing that the beginning of a cement walk borders their premises. The street department has made excavations for a walk similar to that constructed on Tremont street earlier in the summer. It will extend from the present terminus of the concrete sidewalk near Academy street corner to the Averill street corner. The city engineer, having plotted the walk, has made allowance for a grass plot to intervene between the walk and the highway. A cement walk on the west side of Averill street from Jefferson street to Church and the entire length of the east side of Averill street already has been completed.

Under the most favorable auspices, the third and last of a series of flower shows which the Woman's club is holding this summer, opened this afternoon in the Millinery store of the Mrs. Shepard Co. Collectors were abroad early and before noon an imposing variety of flowers arrayed on the tables. The display window has been given over to the exhibition and in it are shown some splendid specimens from the garden of Mrs. C. H. Beckett of Williamstown. The Morrison farm, on west hill, has contributed handsomely to the show and some of the finest blossoms are from the flower beds of Mrs. George Close and John G. Morrison. Judging began this afternoon. Gladioli and dahlias have the call, but the exhibit is by no means confined to those varieties. The show will continue until Saturday evening and in the afternoon bouquets will be sold for the benefit of the district nurse fund. The civic department of the Woman's club has charge of the arrangements and the judges are: Mrs. N. J. Morrison, Miss Blanche J. Tilden and Mrs. E. M. Lyon.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Park theatre will open to-morrow afternoon—adv.

On and after Aug. 14, Red Men will pay their dues to William W. Russell, 18 Laurel street.

Dance this evening in the gymnasium in Graniteville, Carroll's orchestra. Admission, $1 per couple—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradford C. Patch of Boston and Mrs. John F. Cook of East street were visitors at Lake Mansfield in Stowe yesterday.

Clarence Carpenter of Branch street returned to the city last evening from New York City, where he has been spending the past several days.

Miss Mary Fradd of 7 Harrison place, Hartford, Conn., has received word that her son, Private Harold R. Fradd, has arrived safely overseas.

Miss Louise Dashner of Washington street, a 1918 graduate of Spaulding high school, is employed in the real estate office of J. J. Dashner & Son.

Surgical dressings work will be resumed next week—Monday and Tuesday afternoons at 2:30 and Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock.

Miss Edna Dashner of Washington street left the city last evening for Washington, D. C., where she has accepted an appointment in the bureau of war risk insurance.

Miss Ida Haviland of Spaulding street, who is taking a month's vacation from her duties as a dressmaker at the Day-Harris for a few days before returning to resume his duties as manager of his father's farm.

Mrs. Lester Collins, who has been acting as ticket agent at the Central Vermont railroad office during the past several days, returned to her home in St. Albans this forenoon. Miss Lillian Roberts of the Blanchard building resumed her duties at the station this forenoon.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. M. Beattie, who have been passing several days in Enosburg Falls, returned to the city to-day. They were accompanied by their son, Hudson A. Beattie, who will visit in Barre for a few days before returning to resume his duties as manager of his father's farm.

W. H. Jeffrey, state commissioner of charities and probation, will be the speaker at the service in City park next Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock. These meetings are addressed by men in special branches of work and their messages bring before the people matters of interest and helpfulness. A large attendance is hoped for.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Smith of Barre City, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Smith of Troy hill and Miss Dorothy Currell of Reading, Mass., are occupying the Granite City cottage at Queen City park, Burlington, for two weeks. C. F. Smith is much improved in health and is still taking baths and electric treatment at the Green Mountain sanitarium.

Union organizations are preparing to observe Labor day this year, and while the elaborate celebration which usually attaches to the holiday in Barre may undergo modification, it is not the purpose of the Central Labor union, which has plans to train to ignore the significance of the occasion entirely. Labor day falls on Sept. 2, and it is expected that something in the nature of a public picnic will be held, as in former years. It is almost certain that Mayor Charles French of Concord, N. H., will be the speaker. Mayor French is a granitecutter whom the people of Concord have honored several times by election to the mayor's chair. He is well versed in union matters, and if he is able to be present a strong address is assured.

Misfortune lay in the path of two Graniteville men yesterday afternoon from the time they left this city until they reached the quarry district. After a day in the city, the two men started out with a buggy heavily laden for the "hill." Matters ran along smoothly enough until they reached the Quarry street intersection made by the Barre & Chelsea road. At this point, the train of the hill train descending from the heights with a load of unfinished granite, tended to complicate matters decidedly. The horse grew restless and in his attempt to escape the on-rushing locomotive, spilled the occupants of the buggy over a slight embankment. Luckily the horse and team escaped damage, although the men and the team's cargo suffered somewhat from the spill. After righting themselves they resumed the homeward journey, but upon reaching Ward's icehouses near Websterville, the horse decided to make the trip alone and after freeing himself from his companions without inflicting any injuries upon the latter, the beast proceeded home.

Tempting Values in Ready Made Merchandise

Here are some very tempting values in our Garment Department. We are putting prices on a lot of merchandise to clean up stock in the next few days. These values are in our best season's goods in odd lots and broken sizes that we cannot duplicate. We need the room and want the money to put into our new Fall Gowns, which are now coming into the department.

We have been very busy for the last few days. Ladies who want thin dresses, waists and separate skirts are anxious to get some of these values while the assortment is good.

We have a few odd Suits that are of an exceptionally good quality, all wool material. In fact, we cannot duplicate the quality.

There is one Black and White Suit in an all-wool material. A good value to buy and make over, but the style is not bad. A Suit that sold at $20.00. Now to close at $3.98. The skirt alone is worth twice that price.

There are two Silk Poplin Suits that sold at $20.00, to close at $7.98. These are real values.

There are two light Suits in a Men's Wear, Serge, in qualities that sold at $18.00 and $22.50. These are now closing at $7.98. These are worth much more than the regular price to-day.

At one-half price are four Navy and one Black Suit. Are Suits that sold at $22.50 to $27.50 and are really good style, and the quality is the best.

At one-half price are two Navy Blue Suits that were $50.00. Now only $25.00. These are real values.

Few Ladies' Coat Values

We have put on one rack a lot of odd Coats in qualities from $10.00 to $30.00. Are good quality Coats in the season's best styles. They are just odd. We cannot duplicate them. These are all on one rack to close at one-half the regular price. If your size is here, you can get a bargain.

Clean Up on White Skirts

We have a lot of odd White Skirts in the season's best qualities and values, that we have put on one of our display tables to close at one-half the original price. These are Skirts that sold at from $1.75 to $5.00. These are real values at the old prices. If you want a Skirt to finish out the season, this is a good chance to save some good money. Your choice of these Skirts at one-half the original price. These values will go quickly.

Clean Up on Thin Dresses

You will want a good thin Voile Dress to finish out the season. We are putting what we have left of these Dresses on one rack, to close up the lot, at only one-half the original price. This means you can get a good Voile Dress at less than you would pay for the goods alone. There are Dresses in the season's best style and quality that have sold at from $5.50 to $10.00. These are all on one rack to close at only one-half price.

Some Good Waist Values

We have on one of our display tables in the Garment Department a lot of Colored Waists in the latest styles and qualities that are the best, that sold at from $1.25 to $1.50. Your choice of the lot at just one-half the original price. See these Waist values.

STUDENT ARMY TRAINING CORPS.

University of Vermont Selected as One of the Units.

Burlington, Aug. 16.—With the opening of the University of Vermont this fall, any man who enters college may become a member of the student army training corps. Heretofore men of the university have been members of the U. T. C., but being a member of this corps does not prevent them from being drafted. With the new order, when the student becomes 21 years of age, the military officers at the college and the college authorities decide whether he is called immediately to active service or whether he shall remain in college to complete the course he is pursuing. Their decision will be based on his work in college, his military work and the needs of the service.

In a circular issued yesterday by the University of Vermont as a supplement to their regular bulletin, the action of the government, which has just been communicated to the university authorities, is explained.

For further information concerning the student army training corps, apply to Major H. A. Leonausner, Burlington, or to the committee on education and special training, war department, Washington, D. C.

The University of Vermont is one of 47 colleges and universities to be appointed units of this corps. Among the others are Princeton, Cornell and Yale.

HIGHER MILK IN RUTLAND.

Increase Price to 12 Cents to the Consumer.

Rutland, Aug. 16.—"Because prices in Boston are higher," milk men in this city yesterday raised their prices a cent per quart, and the commodity costs 12 cents from the carts and 11 cents at creameries. The price of cream was boosted from 15 to 18 cents for a small bottle. Twenty years ago this summer Rutland creameries were at war with each other and milk sold at two quarts for five cents.

New State Manager.

L. Shaw, jr., has been appointed state manager of the Palmolive company (manufacturers of a popular line of toilet specialties) for the state of Vermont, under the jurisdiction of H. H. Hoskins of the Boston office.

Mr. Shaw, who has traveled the best part of Europe and the states, declares that Switzerland has nothing on the Green mountain state when it comes to beautiful scenery and charming women. He makes his headquarters at the Gilbert inn, Burlington.

$200,000,000 For France.

Washington, Aug. 16.—France to-day was given a loan of $200,000,000 by the treasury, bringing the total credits to France to $2,000,000,000.

Save O-n-Sugar.

The people of the United States in wheat saving have shown what a democracy can do. For several months the household consumption of wheat has been less than 50 per cent of normal, while in the immediate past the whole country has been content to do with only about 35 or 40 per cent of normal wheat requirements. The result has been that we were able to export 141,000,000 bushels of wheat, much of it as flour, that otherwise, in the face of a short harvest, we would not have been able to send overseas. This wheat was the salvation of the allies, and each individual who helped to attain this result may have in some degree the same consciousness of duty well done and of actual achievement as have the soldiers in the trenches. What has been done with wheat can be done with sugar. It is up to the individual American!
